Daniel found a home back home

Before and after: Daniel gets a spruce up before flying home to Switzerland

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

HOMELESS Daniel Issayu was flown back to Switzerland yesterday.

MKNEWS has been following Daniel's plight since November last year.

He had lived on a bench outside Sainsbury's in central Milton Keynes for nearly two years. Nobody would give him shelter because it was believed he is an illegal immigrant.

Volunteer Ann Cooper, from the Open Door drop-in centre in Conniburrow, accompanied him on the 6am flight to Geneva yesterday morning.

Three weeks ago Daniel was rushed into hospital with a bacterial skin infection.

Volunteers found him in pain near the Theatre District while they were out hunting for him because he hadn't turned up at the homeless drop-in centre that he attends weekly for a hot meal.

Dean Burchall, the volunteer who found him, said: "When we found him he hadn't been able to move for days.

"His eyes were all yellow, his feet were rotten. He was lying in a pit, he hadn't been able to move for days."

When Daniel was released from hospital last Tuesday with nowhere to go, volunteers were livid. He is from Switzerland and speaks French, which meant he was unable to read the labels on the bag of medicine he had been given.

The volunteers have been struggling to find shelter for Daniel, but after liaising with the Swiss Embassy, it was decided he should go back there.

They confirmed that he was a Swiss national.

Ann Cooper stayed in Switzerland for a meeting with the Embassy and saw where he will be staying before flying home just hours later.

Before she left she said: "All this mismanagement and lack of care will finally be sorted out.

"I am going with him and I am going to find out his full story. We've found he's got two sisters and a brother. He'll be given a home there, I'll see the home before I leave. Daniel looks really happy to be going home.

"We found a French person to explain it to him - you can't just throw a human being around.

"I'm just ashamed of the British system."

Before the decision was made to take him back to Switzerland, Daniel was offered a daily hot dinner by generous Netherfield resident Diane Tillyer.

On Monday, volunteers made sure Daniel was well presented for his trip home.

He had a haircut, a shave and was given clean new clothes, kindly donated by MK NEWS readers.

Dean said: "He looked like a normal guy, and that's what he is.

"Daniel was let down badly and only the hard work of a few saved him, he is a human being but it seems if you are Daniel then you may as well be living in a third world country after all.

"Please thank all your kind readers for their offers of financial and other help."

Council quote quiz 'pointless'

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

MK Council's leader says thousands of pounds have been wasted by a 'pointless' review into a controversial statement made by chief executive John Best.

MKNEWS revealed in June how opposition councillors called for a review after the chief executive's words on city growth were branded as 'deplorable' by Olney councillor Debbie Brock.

But now Lib Dem Cllr Isobel McCall has branded the review as 'frivolous' and called in the District Auditor to look into the issue.

At a meeting of full council on June 12 Conservative Cllr Brock asked councillors to agree to a motion to find out how an admitted breach of council policy can happen and how it could be quoted again in another paper.

The statement, which was originally made in a letter from the chief executive to a Government advisor in June 2006, was re-quoted in a paper on growth presented at a meeting of the manager's assembly at the council on February 7 this year.

The paragraph read: "Community engagement is time and resource consuming, which is difficult when faced with the tight time-scales of the growth agenda. MKC members' desire to involve the community in shaping its own future is therefore a frustration in the imperative for speedy and efficient delivery of growth."

The Olney councillor claims the words criticise councillors for effectively holding up the growth agenda.

The council passed a motion asking the chief executive and leader of the council to present a written report to the chairman of the Performance Review Panel explaining how and by whom the letter had been produced.

It also asked them to make all previous correspondence from the chief executive's office relating to the issue of the growth in Milton Keynes over the previous five years available to the panel.

When it met last Wednesday to consider the correspondence no objections were raised to any of the letters.

Cllr McCall said nearly 500 hours of staff time, costing £16,500, has been spent on searching out and making this correspondence available.

"I fully support councillors' rights to have access to information within the council; however councillors have a duty to spend public money wisely," she said.

"Surely they must consider the financial and service implications of supporting frivolous political motions, which require council staff to do lots of work for no good reason."

Cllr Brock said she still believes the review was worthwhile and welcomes the District Auditor's investigation.

"We believe the documentation that has been put forward is inadequate as there are fewer than 200 documents, many of which were letters of less than two pages, some were also repeated as they were authored by more than one person," she said.

"We wonder where the rest is, and frankly if that is how long it takes to pull together 200 documents something definitely needs to be looked at."

She added: "Some positive things have also come out of the meeting of the Performance Review Panel; the chief executive issued a formal apology for the statement, and the panel discussed new protocols about the signing of letters."

No fears as junior hospital docs change jobs

MILTON Keynes Hospital guarantees there will not be chaos as around 100 junior doctors start work today.

Concerns were raised in the national media yesterday that hospital services would be overwhelmed as 30,000 junior doctors change job.

Junior doctors change jobs every six months to gain experience in different areas of medicine.

The scale of transfer on one day this year is said to be due to the Government's new online-recruitment system.

Jill Rodney, chief executive of Milton Keynes General Hospital, said the hospital are prepared, as ever, for the changes.

"A new rotation of junior doctors starts in August every year, and Milton Keynes General Hospital is well practised in ensuring that the change takes place smoothly.

"We are used to dealing with this issue and have plans in place to make sure services continue to run efficiently and ensure we offer the best possible patient care.

"Each department has ensured suitable levels of staff are available when the junior doctors arrive.

"During the junior doctors' induction outpatients and operating lists have been allocated appropriately, so that the changes will not impact on waiting lists or levels of patient care."

Asda's cutting car parking for Dons footy fans

– but boss Ince gets his own match day bay

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS manager Paul Ince will have no problem finding a parking space near stadium:mk but MK Dons supporters may not be so lucky.

Asda welcomed it's new neighbours by unveiling a designated space for the new boss, on Friday, marked with his initials and an outline similar to the Dons logo.

But on the same day, the supermarket giant told supporters that parking spaces were strictly for shoppers and not for match day parking.

Store manager Andy Peach said: "Here at the store everyone is excited about the new MK Dons season with ex-England legend Paul Ince at the helm and that's why we have decided to ensure there is always a space reserved for Paul in our store, so he can drop in any time he wants to do his shopping.

"I would like to assure our loyal local customers that our car park is expressly intended for shoppers in the store and as such we would ask anyone coming to games on match day at the MK Dons stadium seek alternative parking facilities so that local people can continue to shop with ease."

A spokesman for Asda confirmed yesterday: "There will be parking attendants at the top of the entrances on match days.

"If four lads in footy shirts turn up they won't let them in. Our main objective is not to upset Asda customers."

Parking at the supermarket has helped to ease congestion around the new stadium as hundreds of fans used it for the Alan Ball Memorial Cup on Sunday and last weeks pre-season game against West Ham.

MK Council cabinet member for transport and Dons season ticket holder, Chris Williams, said: "I had hoped that Asda would have been able to come to an arrangement with the stadium. It would have been good for relations between the two. There are spaces at the back that are under-utilised by Asda so it's disappointing.

"What if I want to go and buy something to eat from Asda after the game but I'm wearing a football shirt – will they let me in?"

He said that there are also a few minor things to iron out like improving signs to direct traffic around the stadium.

Boy hit by car outside Gullivers theme park

A CHILD was hospitalised after he was knocked down by a car outside Gullivers theme park.

Police and ambulance services were called to the scene at around 4.50pm on Monday following reports that a child had been hit.

The boy, believed to be around 12-years-old, was walking with an adult and a younger child along the verge by Newlands roundabout.

The police were told that the boy appeared to have gone into the road, where he was struck by a black Hyundai Getz.

An ambulance was called and the road was closed off until 7.20pm.

The boy was taken to Milton Keynes hospital where he was found to have escaped with minor injuries because the car had been travelling at a slow speed.

No-one else was injured and the police were satisfied that no arrests were necessary.

MP leaves wife

CITY MP Mark Lancaster has separated from his wife.

The couple, who have been married for 11 years, have described their separation as 'very amicable'.

The pair say their hectic work schedule is to blame for the split. Katie Lancaster is a partner in a London law firm.

Mr Lancaster said: "It's really very sad, especially as Katie remains my best friend, but as two very busy people who have little opportunity to see each other, we have been living increasingly separate lives. After a lot of thought, we have decided that it would be better for both of us if we separate. However, we hope that we will remain good friends and will continue to support each other."

Flag flying drives some readers up the pole

SIR – Of course we should fly the union flag in MK.

If we, as British citizens started taking more pride in our nation, the way many other nations do, we might actually achieve the unity that 'political correctness' has badly failed to deliver.

I am British, I love the UK and I am a partiot who loves my culture, freedom andway of life.

I am not ashamed to feel this way, and if anyone has a problem with they way I feel, I'd be interested to see how they could possibly justify such thoughts.

Lets stop the 'any-cause-will-do' brigade from making us 'ashamed' to fly our nations flag.

Johanna Hrycak, by e-mail

■ SIR – On re-reading your article on the the decision taken by Cllr McCall concerning the flying of the Union Flag rather than the MK Council flag at the civic offices, I have become even more angerd by the arrogance and conceit of the remark she made, viz: 'we are Milton Keynes Council and it is our council building'.

Cllr McCall, should be reminded that she is merely a public servant, temporarily elected to serve the community.

The attitude that is being displayed in this contretemps could well result in a corrective administered by the local voters and taxpayers to whom the civic offices really belong.

Cllr McCall would do well to remember that hubris is followed by nemesis.

Michael Johnson
by e-mail

■ SIR – Regarding whether the council should fly the Union Flag or not, it reminded me of my visit a few years ago to Gothenburg to stay with friends.

Everywhere you looked you would see the Swedish flag flying not only on civic buildings but also flying from large flag poles in the centre of housing estates and mini flag poles on porches of almost every home.

I asked my friend why and he was clearly surprised by my question and he simply replied: 'because we are Swedish'.

Clearly the Swedes have a sense of 'Swedishness' built into their psyche from an early age; perhaps the Government could take a leaf out of Sweden's books.

The Government target immigrants to Britain to prove their 'Britishness' but they should also look at how to embed 'Britishness' into everyone living in Britain such that we do not, as we do now, feel awkward at the idea of flying the Union Flag.

The council quite rightly is proud to fly its corporate flag but it should also erect another flag pole to proudly fly the Union Flag.

Robert Taylor
Badgemore Court, Two Mile Ash

■ SIR – I am very grateful for MP Mark Lancaster's thoughts and support on flying the Union Flag.

No word of support, though, from Labour's Phyllis Starkey.

Of course it may be because in the House of Commons she voted to BAN the Union Flag (on vehicle number-plates, although she happily favoured the EU symbol as an 'option'. ('How long before it becomes compulsory?' was the unanswered question).

Any reader who wants to can write to a dedicated e-mail address:
flyingunionflag@hotmail.co.uk expressing their opinion.

Cllr Don Hoyle
Loughton Park Ward (Conservative)

■ SIR – I refer to the article 'Councillors in flagpole furore' in last week's MK NEWS, in which you state: 'it is illegal to fly the European flag, characterised by a ring of stars, without planning permission'. This is not correct.
Under the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) Regulations 2007 there are nine different classes of advertisement that are excluded from the direct control of the planning authority, provided certain conditions are fulfilled. The class concerning flags specifies:
(a) Any country's national flag;
(b) The flag of the Commonwealth, European Union or the United Nations;
(c) The flag of any English county;
(d) The flag of any saint.
So flying the EU flag is not illegal and does not require planning permission.

David Hackforth, head of planning and transport,
Milton Keynes Council
■ For more views on flying the flag see Page 6

Not in my valley

SIR – I am a resident of Emerson Valley and have read the letters from each camp over the last weeks.

Those from Jane Holliday, Stuart Benzie and Julie Herriott are a clear indication that they do not know the feeling of the residents and why.

I would like to see the rugby club get its sports complex but not in Emerson Valley.

This is the EVRAG argument, we are a residential area – that means people and houses, our homes. We have a school, which means young children, we are an alcohol-free zone. The leisure complex would totally destroy this nice, quiet ,well looked after estate.

The sports complex gives nothing to anybody who does not play rugby or the sports mentioned or anything to our community.

I see Mr Benzie's comment that he hopes, football, athletics, baseball and cricket are catered for. If this is so even more cars, noise pollution, use of flood lights and drinking will take place.

The points in the letters are not in tune with the proposal.

Please build this amenity where it will do most good for rugby and all the other sports mentioned not near a school, or a residential area.

Do the pro-complex people live with this on their front door? I doubt it very much.

As to meeting the pro-rugby people, we met them on the initial meeting in 2006 and, we think that we do believe your proposal is incorrect for this community and urge somebody to see sense and cater for all our needs.

Rick Keats
Emerson Valley

■ SIR – I think that it is time for me as a player of rugby to say something.

1. I am 10 years old
2. I play rugby for the Milton Keynes under 11s
3. I love playing the game, it helps to keep me fit.
5. I think we need a new club and fields because we have our training and games cancelled because our ground gets waterlogged.
6. When this season starts, I would like people from Emerson Valley to come and watch us children learning a great sport and enjoying ourselves, instead of watching telly or playing on our playstations.
7. It is possible that some of your children/grandchildren would like to join us.

Brownie points for Theatre District farmers' market

SIR – I would like to thank all MK NEWS readers for their farmers' market feedback, I would also like to clarify a few points.

With regard to the Theatre District being the wrong place – I found that very interesting considering it is next to Sainsbury's and Waitrose and adjacent to car parking which is free for TWO hours (as we know, a rarity in CMK).

Due to the fact we are trying to promote community-type activity in the district there was only a token charge for a pitch and there was no conflict with other markets in the vicinity.

Some people feel the farmers haven't given Milton Keynes a decent chance, and I have to say I would love them to commit to six months.

However, as many of the goods are produced specifically for each market and have to be thrown away if not sold, I can understand their decision from a financial perspective.

Also you have to keep in mind that this is the second or third time a farmers' market has been attempted in different parts of CMK, and each time it has been initially well supported and then the interest and support has waned.

As for prices, I guess the saying is 'you get what you pay for', and with food it is no different to any other goods and services.

I thought £1 for an exceptional quality and decent sized brownie wasn't excessive at all.

I think in Milton Keynes we are spoilt with a huge choice of retail and leisure activities on our doorstep.

As someone said, 'shoppers vote with their feet' and maybe the modern dwellers of Milton Keynes are too busy or have other priorities and are therefore unable to justify the regular support of this type of event, especially when it is raining or windy.

Sara Mills, marketing manager
Theatre District, CMK

Dons traffic kids' stuff

SIR – Re parking at the new Dons stadium.

Surely when planning the stadium, with a capacity for 3,000 cars, someone with an ounce of common sense would realise that 3,000 cars would have a major impact on the already congested traffic around Granby?

Why weren't slip roads on and off the A5 northbound carriageway built? It seems so obvious a solution where all visiting traffic enters and exits without the need to get snarled up in the local traffic system.

As for stopping each car to pay for parking, it's pure madness and the resulting queuing could have been avoided. So obvious, a three year old could have forseen it. There must be some real plonkers organising these things.

Parking should be free at the stadium, with walkways to local food, shopping and other facilities without the need to drive into Bletchley.

If you don't know how to do it, go to any stadium in the USA and see how it is done.

PS: Get the bottleneck B&Q roundabout sorted.

Ray Styles
Bletchley

No city jobs to suit

SIR – I read in MKNEWS about Milton Keynes being 'good for jobs' – well, you could have fooled me.

When I asked the local Job Centre about a job for my grandson they told me they had four unskilled jobs on their books and three of them were part-time.

The only semi-skilled job they had was not in Milton Keynes.

My grandson, who is registered with Connexions for under 18s, tells me they have a problem getting work on a voluntary basis, never mind a proper, paid job.

The problem is that we are bringing jobs to MK that do not suit the local population.

So the next time the bigwigs up at the council and elsewhere take a trip round MK and see groups of bored teenagers, they will know the reason why, won't they?

Gangsters rally to a good cause

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

THREE city men are to drive a battered old Volvo from Calais to Poland dressed as gangsters.

Grant McKay, from Peartree Bridge and his three friends Tim Beilby, from Oldfarm Park, Martyn Bellis, from Emerson Valley, and Guy Attard, from Leighton Buzzard are to take part in the Ramshackle Rally, driving a car worth £100 from Calais to Krakow in four days.

Their mission is to drive their 22-year-old Volvo 240 GL estate, which has 140,000 miles on the clock, and return to the UK in one piece.

If they win the prize will be free entrance to the legendary Cannonball Run, Europe.

Along the way there will be stops in Strasbourg on the French/German border, Innsbruck in Austria and Bratislava the capital city of Slovakia.

The route covers approximately 1,400 miles along motorways, through sleepy Eastern European villages and treacherous mountain passes.

Each team will also be set tasks by the organisers of the rally to make things a little more "interesting".

"We will be asked to do tasks like taking a picture of an old lady in a street with an egg or something silly like that," said Grant.

"Each of the 108 teams taking part also have to chose a theme, and decorate their cars.

"Our theme is 'The Ant Hill Mob' from the cartoon series the Wacky Races, so we are dressed as gangsters.

"We thought it would be something a bit different!"

The group has already raised nearly £1,300, which will be donated to Great Ormond Street Hospital and Macmillan Cancer Support.

"It will be a lot of fun for us but we thought we would do it for a purpose," Grant added.

"One of our friends was diagnosed with Hodgkinsons disease in January so that's why we decided to support Macmillan Cancer Support."

"Also, a few years ago a family member of one of the team was diagnosed with hydrocephalus (water on the brain), and spent a great deal of time in Great Ormond Street Hospital having many operations to correct the condition."

To sponsor the team for the rally, which starts on Friday, visit www.justgiving.com/anthillmob_macmillan, or www.justgiving.com/anthillmob_GOSH

Evelyn Tucker on the remains of her scooter minus dashboard, handles and basket

Thieves joyride on disabled couple's mobility scooters

THIEVES stole two mobility scooters from a shed in Beanhill and took them on a joyride.

Evelyn Tucker, 68, and her husband William, 82, from Lammas, were left housebound after discovering their mobility scooters had been stolen on Friday morning.

The thieves cut through a heavy padlock in order to gain access to the two scooters, which are each worth around £4,000.

"We think it happened at midnight, as someone rang our door bell and when we went to answer there was nobody there," said Mrs Tucker.

We think that was a distraction bringing us to the front of the house while they broke into the shed in the back garden.

"My scooter wasn't charged and the keys were in the house, so they must have free wheeled them both out, but they managed to get them going somehow and went for a joy ride."

Mrs Tucker and her son found the scooters dumped in the neighbourhood on Friday afternoon.

"We found William's scooter at the top of Bodkin, on the public footpath," she said.

"There were three youths with it. My son ran down there and told them to leave it alone. They were trying to push it away but when I said the police were involved they stopped.

The youths, who said they found Mr Tucker's scooter in a bush, later found the second near the Beanhill underpass.

Both were extensively damaged, and may have to be replaced.

"It will take a while to sort out and meanwhile my husband is housebound," said Mrs Tucker.

"We use them every single day as we are both semi-disabled. I can manage to walk a little, but it is painful as I am taking morphine tablets for my back.

"It will cost us a fortune as we will have to get taxis everywhere now. It is the inconvenience they have caused and a lot of hardship."

More views on flying the Union Flag

■ SIR – I think we should be proud to fly the Union Jack, English people are fed up with trying to please everyone else in our own country.

Let's show the world that we are proud to be English.

Christina Hawkesworth

■ SIR – Like many other residents of MK, I am appalled that ANY Councillor should vote for flying the self-important council flag instead of the Union flag.

In every continental country, as well as the US, citizens are proud to display the historic symbols of their nationhood – do the 16 who voted against flying the Union Flag feel that the being a member of the council is more important than being British?

They should NOT be allowed to remain anonymous, but should be named (and also shamed).

As an armed services veteran, I would be delighted to know why they voted to be un-patriotic!

Michael Johnson

■ SIR – As an ex-service man, having served 41 years in the Royal Air Force, I take great pride in the Union Flag, and certainly believe it should take preference over the County Flag (which often looks like a dirty piece of white material dangling from the flag pole!!!)

MP Mark Lancaster and Cllr Don Hoyle outside MK Council offices

The answer to the problem would be for the council to bring back the second flag pole which I remember used to be along ide the present one, and then we can proudly fly both flags.

A few years ago my wife and I celebrated our golden wedding by taking a river cruise down the Rhine, a lasting memory we have of this holiday was the large numbers of Union Flags that were being flown from buildings on the river banks.

The Germans seemed to take greater pride in flying our flag than ever we do in our own country.

So please keep pressing for the Union Flag to be flown over Milton Keynes.

Bill Whiter
(President Woburn Sands & District RAFA)

■ SIR – So Cllr McCall refuses to contact local business to see if they have planning permission to fly the EU Flag.

I suppose if we all erected a pole in our front gardens and flew one, or the Union Flag, she would soon be chasing us.

Well, local businesses may be proud to be part of the EU, but I fully support Cllr Hoyle and Mark Lancaster MP on their stand, when it comes to our national identity.

I say, fly the Union Flag and be proud of it.

We are British, well, some of us are.

I am totally fed up to the teeth with all this PC we are imposing on this country. Our Union Flag is not just for 'special' occasions – fly it with pride.

John McCafferty
Newport Pagnell

■ SIR – We definitely feel the council should fly the Union Flag in Milton Keynes.

After living abroad for several years we are only too well aware of the lack of national pride there is in this country.

In France their national flag is flown with pride, often alongside the Union Flag in places like Normandy and Brittany.

We are British and proud of it, proud of our country and our roots. Fly the flag with pride!

High (early after) noon: No fans in sight at 2.30pm on Sunday at the Musicmania Live event at thecentre:mk

Crowds give Musicmania event a miss

National press blasts stars 'hasbeens'

Patient: Paul Young waits to sign

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

THE organisers of the two-day Musicmania Live have defended the event following a low turnout at the weekend.

The weekend fair, at thecentre:mk, was criticised by sections of the media for failing to have any star-appeal.

Pop singers from the past and present included Dane Bowers, 911, H and Lisa from Steps, Alvin Stardust and the Cheeky Girls and all were available for photos and autographs with fans.

But the celebrities were left alone for long spells in the afternoons and were berated as 'has-beens' by a visiting journalist from a national newspaper.

Mania founder Jason Joiner also runs the hugely popular Collectormania which attracts thousands of film fanatics and collectors every year.

He remains adamant that the event has potential for success, despite the bad press.

Jason, 33, said: "I was shocked at how negative it was.

"It was quiet in the afternoons and it was much quieter than Collectormania but at the end of the day our first Collectormania had the same attendance.

"We know it's hard to start them up and we need to get the word out there.

"We sold about 5,000 autographs over the three days and I'm sure the people who came along had a good time."

"It was a positive response from the public and the celebrities gave us a positive response too.

"The next one will be in May next year but at the moment we can't really pin down celebrities that far in advance."

Photos and autographs with the celebrities cost between £10 and £15 each.

Tony Christie (of Amarillo fame) and former Sex Pistols bassist Glen Matlock cancelled their appearances while organisers admitted Alvin Stardust could only attend for two hours of his time because of a wedding.

Central MK plan unveiled

THIS is what Milton Keynes' West End will look like.

The first phase of the central Milton Keynes site will consist of 650 townhouses and apartments as well as retail and commercial units.

Eventually more homes, a school and community facilities will be built on the site.

Places for People, one of the UK's largest property management and development groups, was selected as the preferred developer for phase one last month.

The site is situated between MK Central railway station and thecentre:mk.

John Lewis, regional director for English Partnerships Eastern England and Milton Keynes, said: "The first phase of this exciting new development will set the overall tone for design and quality standards for subsequent phases. Central Milton Keynes requires a fresh approach to 21st century urban living and we are looking forward to working with Places for People to deliver our vision for the creation of a city centre of international importance."

David Shaw, director for development and procurement for Places for People said: "This represents a golden opportunity to redevelop the centre of Milton Keynes.

"And create a dynamic and vibrant urban neighbourhood that is built to the highest environmental standard.

"We are committed to working with English Partnerships and the local community and believe this exciting development can act as a catalyst for the wider regeneration of the area and serve as a beacon for international city living."

Members of Wolverton Park Bowls Club around 1910

New era for county's oldest bowls club

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW £1million bowls facility has opened in Old Wolverton.

The green, on Haversham Road, are the new home of Wolverton Park Bowls Club.

The club was forced to move from its old site on Stratford Road, behind Wolverton Station, after the land was sold for housing development.

The new facility features a pavilion building, bowling green, indoor bowling rink, landscaped gardens and car park.

The development, owned by The Parks Trust, was funded by English Partnerships and Places for People with equipment being provided by the Community Foundation.

The mayor of Milton Keynes opened the facility on Sunday by bowling the first bowl with club president May Gallacher.

The green was then christened with its first match between Wolverton Park and representatives from 13 teams across Milton Keynes.

Derek Botterill, who has been a member of Wolverton Park for nearly 20 years, said the new facilities are 'marvellous'.

"We have a short-mat bowling green, which means we can play in winter. We are also hiring the hall out to the Milton Keynes community and companies for events ."

He said the green, which cost £900,000 to develop, is the best in the county.

"Wolverton Park is the oldest club in Buckinghamshire, it has been going since 1889. The clubhouse was built in the 1940s; it was very run-down."

The club, which has 100 members, hopes to attract new talent .

"Since we have been here we have been joined by around 18 new members," added Mr Botterill, "Some are around 20-years-old, and one we are coaching now is ten."

Commenting on the re-opening David Foster, chief executive of The Parks Trust, said: "This is a great new pavilion and the club which is part of Wolverton's interesting history deserves a pavilion it can be proud of. Bowls is a great game for all generations to enjoy and we hope that the new facilities will attract not only new members to the club but also provide a great facility for local groups within the Wolverton area."

■ Membership and use of the pavilion is open to all; those interested should contact the club on 01908 320919.

Killer nurse struck off national register

A CITY nurse has been struck off after being found guilty of the murder of two patients.

Benjamin David Geen, 26, appeared at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court in the company of a prison guard on Thursday.

Geen, who is in Woodhill prison serving at least 30 years for the offences, was found guilty of misconduct by a panel of the Nursing and Midwifery Council's professional conduct committee.

In May 2006 he was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of two patients at Horton General Hospital, and of causing grievous bodily harm to a further 15 elderly patients.

Chairman of the panel, Elizabeth Rush, said: "This was the most substantial breach of trust reposed in a nurse imaginable. There was every risk imposed on patients in a vulnerable category, of the most severe harm, even death.

"There was absolutely no respect for these patients as individuals."

Struck off: Ex-nurse Benjamin Geen who is in Woodhill Prison serving 30 years for murder

Geen, was removed from the Nursing and Midwifery Council's register.

His barrister told the tribunal that he still maintained his innocence and planned to appeal against his conviction.

Fishermead assault

DETECTIVES in Milton Keynes are appealing for witnesses after a woman was assaulted in Fishermead on Saturday evening.

The 29-year-old woman had just left a shop on the corner of Penryn Avenue and Pencarrow Place when she was verbally abused and then attacked by a black man.

The woman did not suffer serious injuries.

Officers would like to hear from anyone who was in the area, between 7.45pm and 8pm, who saw the incidents.

Anyone with information should contact DC Moyra Richardson on 0845 8 505 505.

Festival plans for brighter Bletchley

AN amazing display of fireworks, lights and dance is being planned for Bletchley.

West Bletchley Council has announced it plans to hold a Winter Festival of Light in November.

A council spokesman said: "The project aims to encourage diverse groups in the town to become involved in the community. It will also be an excellent opportunity to raise the profile of West Bletchley."

Canal and river bridges set to be strengthened

A MAJOR upgrade of the H9 canal and river bridges at Simpson has been given the go-ahead.

Milton Keynes Council cabinet members agreed to a £1million-plus programme of strengthening works on the two bridges which support the dual carriageway.

Both bridges will be closed until next March causing potential traffic problems for motorists attempting to make it through to the A421 or M1.

The parapet railings on the top of the bridge will also be upgraded.

Work will start at the end of August, on a 60 metre stretch of bridge starting from the junction with Newport Road to the junction with Marshworth.

£1million upgrade: The H9 Groveway Canal bridge at Simpson

The project is expected to take about seven months to complete and the road will be closed while work is carried out.

Cllr Chris Williams, cabinet member responsible for transport, said: "The bridges are still adequate in supporting the dual carriageway above and capable of dealing with vehicles up to 40 tonnes.

"But our tests have show that the bridge does need refurbishment and, although we looked at ways of doing the work without closing the road, for safety reasons it was not possible.

"We will be signposting alternative routes, and we would ask motorists to bear with us but we do need to do this work."

Fans queue for new kit

MK DONS fans queued at stadium:mk on Saturday morning to get hold of the new Nike home strip.

The new club shop, run by Nike retail partner JustSport on behalf of the club, opened it's doors with around 100 fans waiting to get their hands on the strip and other memorabilia.

Dons' chairman Pete Winkelman and midfielder Paul Mitchell both signed autographs and posed for photos.

Chairman Pete said: "It's brilliant to see so many people here. The shop looks great and the kit looks fantastic."

Elderly losing out on nursing funding

ELDERLY people in Milton Keynes are among the least likely in the whole of the south of England to get funding for continuous nursing.

Figures from the Department of Health show that 61 patients out of a population of 231,410 in Milton Keynes have their nursing paid for by the MK Primary Care Trust (PCT).

This contrasts with Harrow where the PCT picks up nursing bills for 826 patients out of a population of 197,867.

Milton Keynes comes 130th on a table of 152 PCTs.

Registered Nursing Home Association chief Frank Ursell said: "It makes no sense that people should have such vastly different experiences.

"There has been little or no consistency in the way that PCTs have been applying the eligibility criteria for NHS continuing care."

The worst area in the country was Derby where seven people out of a population of 272,067 have their nursing paid for.

A PCT spokesman said: "The continuing care criteria in Milton Keynes is the same as Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire and Berkshire.

"Also Milton Keynes has a young population which also has a bearing on such figures."

Changes to Enduring Power of Attorney Rules

From October 2007, the ability to create an Enduring Power of Attorney will be banished forever.

Existing arrangements will be allowed to continue, but from October 2007 anyone wanting to put control of their money and property into the hands of someone else will have to follow a new procedure.

Neves are advising clients to plump for an Enduring Power of Attorney before it is too late because in October 2007 it will become much more complex. An EPA set up before the changes take place will remain valid.

The point of the Enduring Power of Attorney is to choose someone while you are well to look after your affairs when you aren't.

As things stand you can draw up a basic Power of Attorney to have someone act for you and help with straightforward tasks such as fetching money from the bank. But it runs out once you become unable to manage your affairs.

That's where the Enduring Power of Attorney or EPA comes in. You hand power over your property and money to someone else you trust. The power can start right now while you are well if you want it to, but the important feature of the Enduring Power of Attorney is that it continues when you're unable to manage.

The EPA is to be replaced by a new Lasting Power of Attorney which will come in 2 forms. The first is completely new. It covers decisions over health and welfare. The second deals with property and money as before.

However, the Lasting Power of Attorney will only be valid once it is registered with what's called the Office of the Public Guardian and a new fee paid to the Public Guardianship Office. The new fee is likely to be higher.

Granting a power of attorney is such a significant step that many people prefer to seek the help of a solicitor.

Temporary respite: The MK40 coffee bar outside MK gallery will be open until the end of October

Living in a box

Well, more like sipping Fair Trade coffee in a green shipping container

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

A SHIPPING container is doubling up as a cafe outside Milton Keynes Gallery.

The art installation, which serves Fair Trade coffee, has been designed as part of the city's 40th birthday celebrations.

The temporary coffee bar in the 20ft x 8ft converted green shipping container has been named MK40 Coffee Bar.

Artist Richard Woods, commissioned by the gallery, has painted the interior of the cafe in a mock timber pattern in black and white.

It sits in the shadow of the 19 metre high MK Forty Tower, which will open to the public on Saturday. The tower is a temporary artworkby de Rijke Marsh Morgan Architects (dRMM) also to celebrate the anniversary.

It is being manufactured as a freestanding structure instead of being braced against the gallery facade as originally conceived so that it can be easily re-erected in any location bduring the city's 40th year.

Visitors will be welcome to climb its 101 wooden steps to reach a platform affording panoramic views of the city and beyond.

MK40 Coffee Bar will remain open until the end of October.

A coffee is priced from £1.65 and the bar also serves tea, soft drinks, cakes, biscuits and crisps.

The cafe opens Tuesdays to Sundays from 10am until 5pm, and from 11am until 5pm on Sundays. On Thursdays it opens until 8pm.

The coffee bar offers espresso, Americano, cappucino, cafe latte, mocha, choco latte, macchiato and flavoured milk steamers.

Sublime Coffee is supplying the coffee. The container was supplied by Mr Box Ltd.

A windmill for the minds

PLANS for a 14 metre high wind turbine at a Shenley Lodge school have been given the go-ahead despite protests from residents.

Milton Keynes Council's dvelopment cntrol cmmittee voted unanimously to give permission to erect the wind turbine at Caroline Haslett County Combined School, on Faraday Drive at their meeting last Thursday (July 26).

The wind turbine will be on a nine metre high mast. The overall height, including the helical blades, will be 14 metres.

It will be located in the centre of the school site, 70 metres away from the closest residential property.

The applicants say the wind turbine is an educational feature and an eco-friendly landmark for Milton Keynes, which will produce a third of the school's energy requirements, saving 3.6 tonnes of carbon each year.

But residents claim the turbine would dominate the landscape and cause noise disturbance.

Mark Alton, Shenley Lodge resident and ex-governor of Caroline Haslett School said: "The wind turbine will be considerably higher than the trees and can be seen from all directions."

Resident Valerie Mahon, who has collected a 58-signature petition against the project, he said: "We are very concerned about the visual impact and noise disturbance created by the wind turbine."

Committee members believed the proposed turbine was in line with planning policy, and were attracted by the benefits of the proposal.

Cllr Steve Clark said, "We are all well aware how in the last year we have seen some alarming rises in energy costs, so anything that helps balance the budget of schools should be applauded."

Boy involved in gang attack and robbery

A MAN was attacked and robbed in front of a young boy on a city redway.

The 42-year-old victim was walking home near Stanton Wood roundabout at 1am on Thursday when he was approached by three men.

They hit him, knocked him to the ground and kicked him repeatedly before snatching his mobile phone and credit cards.

A young boy, thought to be about 11-years-old, was seen with the offenders.

They described one of the men as black, 5ft 7ins, slim, and wearing a black balaclava. The second man is 6ft, medium build and was wearing a hood covering his face.

The third is 5ft 8ins and medium build.

Whitewall poems celebrate the city's 40th anniversary

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

A MILTON Keynes poet and artist has written five new poems to celebrate the city's 40th birthday.

The poems by Bill Billings MBE, called From Mud to Marble, are being displayed in the centre:mk on a 'talking wall' until August 12.

Bill, pictured above, who has lived in the area for over 40 years, writes on subjects such as the city's architects and the old towns; the arrival of trees, cars, people, traffic wardens, reflective glass buildings and the subsequent growth of the bustling new city.

The poems are exhibited visually and in audio at the Whitewall exhibition, in Midsummer Arcade, adjacent to John Lewis.

This unusual contemporary art venue has been set aside for regional artists to exhibit their work over eight-week periods.

Bill's success as a folk hero for Milton Keynes began in the early 1970s, when he first began making play sculpture for children.

Born in London in 1938, he moved to Milton Keynes in 1974 to drive a lorry and to work on building sites.

His career in the arts started as a poet under the tutorage of Jack Story, himself a well-known raconteur and poet.

His work with Jack encompassed publishing and work on television and radio in the 1970s and 80s.

Over the years he has provided a social comment on life in Milton Keynes. Much of his early work was done in reaction to the poor conditions that Milton Keynes citizens had to live under during the initial years of its construction.

In 2000 he received an MBE for his work as an inspiring artist working with these communities, including with young people and offenders.

Bill explained why his latest work was given its title: "It's called From Mud to Marble as the early days were an experiment of social engineering and people coming here ended up with no city centre, no hospital, and it was very, very hard to be here for many years."

He said the city has now developed into an exciting place.

"It is good for the youngsters, clean and fresh, and it doesn't flood, so everyone in Gloucester and Tewkesbury thinks it's great."

The poet praised the Whitewall exhibition for providing a place for artists to display their work.

"How many times do you stop and see poetry like that?", he said.

Bill's poems can also be read or heard at the Whitewall's website at www.miltonkeynescontemporary.co.uk, and a publication is available from Waterstones in an accompanying catalogue.

The new works are presented amongst some of Bill's older work and images of past projects.

The Parks Trust has been certified by the Forest Stewardship Council for the management of city woodland

Trusted with our trees

THE woods and trees of Milton Keynes have been formally recognised as great places for both people and wildlife.

The Parks Trust has received Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certification for the management of its woodland throughout Milton Keynes.

The certificate guarantees that the city's precious woods and trees are managed responsibly, sustainably and ensures that they are good for wildlife and for visitors.

Milton Keynes has over 22 million trees and The Parks Trust cares for these along with 4,500 acres of parkland and green spaces. Its woodlands include three ancient woods – Linford, Shenley and Howe Park Wood that pre-date the Domesday Survey of 1086. With magnificent oaks and towering ash trees they provide a tranquil haven just a stones throw from the city centre.

The trust uses a mixture of modern and traditional methods, such as coppicing, to ensure that the special natural features of trees are protected for the future.

David Foster, The Parks Trust's chief executive, said: "FSC certification is a great endorsement of our work and care of the city's woodlands. We work hard to create stunning landscapes which balance the needs of wildlife and the people who enjoy visiting them."

The FSC certificate is awarded to mark responsible woodland management that meets an internationally agreed set of environmental, social and economic standards.

Savouring the sweet smell of success

Krispy Kreme has been in Milton Keynes for a year now and has taken the city by storm. ALICIA BABAEE went to the store to see how they make their doughnuts so moreish

Mine, all mine: Alicia Babaee finds giving away Krispy Kreme doughnuts is a heartwrenching process

WHEN two men camped outside Krispy Kreme in thecentre:mk on the eve of it's opening because they wanted to be first in, everyone wondered what the fuss was about.

One year on, and most city residents have realised.

The American brand has a huge cult following that extends as far afield as Australia, Mexico, the Middle East, and the Far East. People even ask for Krispy Kreme cakes for their wedding day.

Retail marketing manager Pierre Meyer said: "Interestingly, they are most obsessed with them in the Middle East.

"When I worked at Harrods, which was the first place to sell them in the UK, the thing that always blew me away was how Arabs would come and buy 20 or 30 dozen boxes on their way to the airport to give them to all their friends and family."

Anyone who has ever been in a Krispy Kreme store will have been drawn in by the distinctive waft of sweet hot glazed doughnuts.

In fact it's the smell that was the catalyst to their success.

In Winstonsalem, North Carolina, in 1937, a man called Vernon Rudolph began making doughnuts in a factory after buying the recipe from a French chef.

Locals, attracted by the unmistakeable Krispy Kreme aroma, used to come and knock on the door asking to buy them. Seeing an untapped and hungry market, Mr Rudolph knocked a wall down and started selling them individually from the factory.

He installed a red light which would light up when hot doughnuts were coming off the production line.

Now known as the original glaze, this doughnut is Krispy Kreme's number one seller.

The Milton Keynes store has its very own red light that lets shoppers know when freshly glazed hot doughnuts are available.

There are three types of Krispy Kreme stores out of the 32 in the UK. There are seven large stores and factories where 220 doughnuts are produced an hour, and four 'hot tunnel' stores including Milton Keynes.

A 'hot tunnel' store is one that heats doughnuts up and glazes them on site.

Mr Meyer said: "These stores give us the ability to bring the hot doughnut experience to people in shopping centres, where we can't get really big stores."

I went along to have a look at how everything works.

Ready made doughnuts are heated and fed slowly through a fountain of goo to glaze them. They then travel along a conveyor belt while the glaze sets ever so slightly, coating the dough in a delicate sugar shell.

A beady-eyed doughnut expert hooks each of the doughnuts up just in time before it falls off - handing one to anyone queing at the time. Having a go myself, I discovered that giving away Krispy Kremes is quite a heartwrenching process.

Store manager Tony Balthazar gave me a fantastic cup of coffee when I walked through the door, with a dash of Original Kreme syrup.

He then let me have a go at making one.

As it turns out, making good coffee isn't as easy as it looks.

Krispy Kreme has put a lot of energy into its coffee range, focusing on making the wet stuff as good as the doughnuts. To choose the best beans, they held blind taste tests with customers.

I managed to make a cappucino that was perfect to look at.

But on tasting it I realised it was nothing like what Tony had made me earlier.

There's clearly a reason why staff have to go on a training course before they are allowed to make coffee with the swanky machines

The rest of the stores in the UK are known as 'spoke' stores which vend cold doughnuts.

Recently, Krispy Kreme has opened up a kiosk at Xscape, and has also started delivering to Tesco stores locally.

Milton Keynes even has its own doughnut, The Roundabout Ring, which was named by a local resident when the store opened.

The store in thecentre:mk is offering doughnut decorating sessions for families from 11am until 4pm at the weekends.

But Mr Meyer said: "Anyone who buys a doughnut is welcome to do it. You get different coloured icings, sprinkles, sweets. We've had people as old as 55 doing it."

The current limited edition doughnuts are lemon meringue, apple crumble and chocolate dreamcake.

Down on the farm in leafy Wolverton

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

AN 'urban farm' may be created to provide seasonal fresh food in Wolverton.

The project is part of plans to improve green space in and around the town.

The Wolverton Green Project is being organised by Wolverton Unlimited working in partnership with local town and parish councils, Milton Keynes Council, Wolverton Food Train, British Waterways, Natural England and The Parks Trust.

Funding of nearly £570,000 has been secured from the Department for Communities and Local Government's Growth Area Fund, to deliver improvements to green infrastructure through more than 40 schemes in Wolverton, Greenleys and New Bradwell

The focus of the two year programme is to achieve a balance between access, historic landscapes, biodiversity and local food production.

The urban farm would be used as a local food growing enterprise, while at the same time providing a living classroom for schools, community groups and individuals.

A planning application has been submitted by Wolverton and Greenleys Town Council for the area behind Windsor Street, Gloucester Road and Marrion Lane.

Mike Galloway, vice-chairman of Wolverton Unlimited said: "The project is more like a market garden really as the only animals will be chickens. There will also be vegetables and salad crops, though what exactly will be grown is still being decided."

As part of the Green Project work is already under way on improvements to canal towpaths and in the Ouse Valley Park in Old Wolverton.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Wolverton Unlimited is consulting people on other schemes including:

- Installing a bridge over the canal by the Secret Garden to improve links between Wolverton and New Bradwell
- Creation of an 'edible walkway' with blackberries, crab apples, wild plums, wild cherries, logan berries and hazelnuts
- Creating circular walks and a better path to Wolverton Park and the canal
- Planting wild bird cover seed, new trees and enriching hedgerows
- Improvements to landscaping at recreation and play areas and around Holy Trinity Church

For more information or to comment on the plans email greenproject@wolvertonunlimited.com

High life: Rob Rivett joined 70 other guests at Aerial Extreme's first birthday celebration last week

Ropewalk is one – can't wait to be tree

AERIAL Extreme outdoor ropes course at Willen Lake celebrated its first Birthday with a BBQ and free sessions on the course for over 70 guests on Wednesday.

Among the guests, was the deputy mayor of Milton Keynes Jan Lloyd.

She observed as others went through their safety briefing before taking to the course.

General manager Sinan Osman said: "Our first birthday event has been a great success and a real joy to see so many families and friends enjoying themselves and discovering how much of a challenge the course presents.

"The evening has enabled us to meet new people and let them know how Aerial Extreme is committed to providing a fun and safe leisure facility for residents and visitors to the new city."

A log cabin will soon replace the current mobile unit.

Courier crushed by lorry

A COURIER was crushed to death by a 7.5 tonne lorry, an inquest has heard.

David West, of Moorfield, Newton Longville, was picking up a package at a distribution warehouse when the lorry rolled back on him.

Its driver, Michael Marsden of St Ledger Court, Great Linford, was not in the cab at the time.

The incident happened at Concorde Logistics Ltd, Mercers Drive, Bradville, just after 11am on November 16.

Self-employed Mr West was working for PMP Couriers when he was crushed by the Renault lorry which had just been loaded.

It rolled back on him when its brakes failed.

At the inquest Michael McDonald, first aider at Concorde Logistics Ltd, said: "All of a sudden I heard a lot of shouting and screaming.

"What I saw was someone who looked like he might have been crushed."

The court heard how Mr Marsden had loaded it up, he had trouble moving it forward slightly to put the tail lift up.

A warning light flashed on the dashboard so he turned the engine off, put the brakes on, and went into the transport office to tell them he could not use the vehicle.

Vehicle examiner Martin Wright said: "The pressure could not be maintained properly to operate the parking brake. When he was sat in the seat, the leak decreased. When he was out of the seat, the leak increased. But either way, there was a significant leak."

Mr West died of multiple injuries.

The jury returned a narrative verdict.

Lanterns on the lake

BY LAURA HANNAM
Laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

LANTERNS will be floated on Willen Lake on Monday to commemorate the victims of the Hiroshima atomic bomb.

The first atomic bomb was dropped by a United States aircraft on the Japanese city of Hiroshima on August 6 1945, killing an estimated 200,000 people.

Milton Keynes' annual ceremony which seeks to reflect on the horrors of war in an atomic age will be held on the anniversary of the bombing in front of the Peace Pagoda at 8pm.

This will be followed by the floating of lanterns on Willen Lake.

Participants will pray for peace and harmony between all people and nations.

All are welcome to join and offer flowers and incense.

There will also be a talk by the interfaith peace walkers, who will that day finish their 1,300km, 86 day journey from Dublin to London.

The campaigners, who visited Milton Keynes on July 21, are calling for global action to break the 'cycle of mass destruction' created by the nuclear industry.

The walk was organised by Footprints for Peace, an organisation based in America with coordinators throughout the world.

They will tell of their journey through the UK's most notorious nuclear sites, and will talk about their global efforts to establish a nuclear-free future.

Seeing the light: Rev Handa Shonin launches lanterns on Willen Lake last year

Train operator plans

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

LONGER trains and greener parking form some of the promises made by the new rail operator for Milton Keynes.

Officials from Govia met with city MP Phyllis Starkey on Thursday and revealed a host of planned improvements it says will benefit commuters.

Govia has been awarded a contract to run the new West Midlands franchise from November 11, which includes services from Milton Keynes, Bletchley and Wolverton currently run by Silverlink County.

The new franchise requires the operator to draw up plans for further station improvements.

Tom Smith, boss of parent company Go Ahead, told Dr Starkey that Govia has plans to increase the length of more commuter trains from next year and will use the extra capacity provided by the new platform at MK Cental station from December 2008 to 'flex' peak time services in response to demand.

Dr Starkey, MP for Milton Keynes South West, said: "I know both from my constituents and my own experience that overcrowding is increasing on peak commuter services both in the morning and evening.

"I was pleased with Govia's plans and I will continue to lobby ministers to ensure Milton Keynes gets its share of the extra rolling stock the Government is funding."

Govia outlined its plans to install new cycle parking at the station, Network Rail's proposals to increase car parking spaces by 766 and increasing parking spaces at Bletchley.

MK North Labour candidate Andrew Pakes welcomed the environmental elements to Govia's parking suggestions: "Free or reduced cost car parking for electric vehicles and discounts on season tickets for low emission hybrid vehicles are an excellent way of encouraging more environmentally friendly commuting," he said.

Commute free for a week

NATIONAL Express, Britain's number one coach operator, is introducing a new service specifically for commuters from Milton Keynes to Canary Wharf via tube stations in central London.

The scheme will provide commuters with a new, convenient way of travelling to the heart of London's business district five days a week.

To encourage people to leave their cars behind, the service will call at two car parks – at Atterbury, Childs Way and Kingston District Centre as well as Milton Keynes Coachway off J14 of the M1. In London, the coach serves six key locations including Angel in Islington and Archway on the Holloway Road.

An annual ticket costs £1,600.

MK NEWS has teamed up with National Express to offer you the chance to win a week's worth of free commuting.

The service is designed to give commuters another, greener, option to the car or train when travelling to and from work whilst also being able to spend valuable time working or relaxing when on the road. Every passenger will be guaranteed a leather reclining seat on the brand new £250,000 vehicle and will have access to free wi-fi and daily newspapers plus a seat desk and power socket - all to ensure their journey is as comfortable, stress free and productive as possible.

Commenting on the new service, Dave Watkin, sales and marketing director at National Express, said: "Introducing commuter coach services will not only help to reduce congestion on our roads, it will also have a positive impact on the environment."

The MK to Canary Wharf service has been introduced after research showed coach customers prioritise travel options mainly by price and the suitability of arrival and departure timings.

For a timetable and further details log onto www.national-express.com/destinations/commuter or call 08705 808080

We have 20 week long Commuter Passes to win allowing return travel, Monday, August 13 to Friday, August 17 from Milton Keynes to London (whichever stop they wish).

National Express is introducing a new service specifically for commuters from Milton Keynes to Canary Wharf via tube stations

Win Pampers Natural Wipes and DIY vouchers for a nursery makeover

CHANGING your baby can be challenging as your little one wriggles around, so new Pampers Naturals Wipes contain the calming scent of lavender to help create a relaxing nappy change experience.

Pampers understand that your baby is inquisitive about the world around it and often that can add a little wriggling challenge to changing time.

This is why new Pampers Naturals Wipes contain a hint of lavender to help calm and soothe – and look towards making changing time easier for both parent and baby.

Pampers Naturals Wipes are available from most supermarkets and pharmacies and cost around £2.49 for a 63 refill pack.

To celebrate a more relaxing approach to change time, Pampers Naturals Wipes is working with former TV interior designer and mum-of-two, Anna Ryder-Richardson to come up with some ways to create a calming nursery for mum and baby to enjoy.

Pampers Naturals Wipes has teamed up with MKNEWS to give two lucky readers the chance to win Pampers Naturals Wipes Calming Packs, containing DIY vouchers to help towards a nursery makeover, a CD of relaxing music, and a hamper of Pampers Naturals Wipes.

Working on relationships

RELATIONSHIPS are hard work – issues such as sexual or financial problems, a new born baby, addiction to internet pornography, or 'blending' two families can cause huge tension in relationships.

Stumbling on difficulties from time to time is inevitable in families and couples.

But tucked away on a quiet Wolverton street, in a former fishmongers, is a service that can help.

Relate, known as Marriage Guidance Counselling before it was rebranded in the 1980s, has extended to offer a much wider range of services, no longer limiting itself to married couples.

Gwilym Roberts, centre manager, said: "We used to have a twinset and pearls image, and now we obviously don't. We are trying to shake off that image by introducing more diversity."

Anyone can come along - individuals, young people, unmarried couples, gay couples, or whole families.

Couples looking for support are asked to fill out a form asking questions such as how Relate can help, for what reasons they have come to Relate and how they rate their relationship.

A systemic approach is used, which is relaxed with lots of questions.

Interestingly, Relate's aim is not to keep couples together. They aim to get the best for the couple.

This means that on occasions, Relate works with couples going through a divorce, helping them to deal with it in the best way.

If they are attending sex therapy, the counsellor will put a series of fairly invasive questions to the couple individually via a worksheet.

Couples will only be given sex therapy if they have a strong relationship. If not, they will have to attend couples counselling first.

Sex therapy is used for problems such as impotence, premature ejaculation, vaginismus or a loss of libido.

Couples will be given homework, and results have proved excellent.

All sorts of relationships break down every day and it can be a tough time. ALICIA BABAEE spoke to Relate's Gwil Roberts to find out how the charity is there to help

But at the opposite end of the spectrum, Relate can be very family-orientated. The charity says that 'adults make the weather in families' and so it is important that parents are happy.

A colourful family room with toys enables counsellors to use play to explore issues.

There are four other counselling rooms at Relate, used by 20 counsellors.

Gwilym said: "They contain the standard three chairs, box of tissues, bland picture, and the obligatory pot plant. They are soundproofed.

"We never go into peoples' homes."

The team also goes out to a whole list of other venues including schools, family centres and nurseries across Milton Keynes.

According to Gwilym, communication is the biggest issue in relationships.

He said: "Everybody has communication issues in relationships. I really wish people would have little MOTs to evaluate things, even if there are only a few niggling doubts.

"They can come in even just for one session.

"Every month people should make time to talk about how things are going. Go to Pizza Hut, make a thing of it."

Usually a counselling session lasts for 50 minutes - known as a 'counselling hour' - but family sessions can sometimes take longer.

Relate does not place limits on how often people come. After the initial phonecall they are usually able to see people within a week although particularly busy periods should be expected just after Christmas and after the summer holidays.

Gwilym said: "People are often at their wit's end when they contact us. They are very anxious, angry, depressed, crying.

"At Christmas every has been cooped up and there may be financial issues. Then after the summer holidays, because people have been looking after the children.

"We're quiet during sunny periods - so as you can imagine we're very busy at the moment."

He added: "With heterosexual couples, they often experience problems during pregnancy or after the birth of their first child. A twosome suddenly becomes a threesome and the power dynamics change.

"But on average, couples leave it seven years before they get help.

"Then there can be problems when children leave for uni, when a partner retires, and many more.

"But Relate believes small arguments are a good thing."

Two weeks ago Relate started offering counselling for young people who can either refer themselves or be referred by teachers, parents, or Connexions workers.

They even do sessions for workforces to improve relations within companies.

■ Relate is open 9am-10pm Monday to Thursday, until 4pm on Fridays and 9am-1pm on Saturdays. There are 20 counsellors - some of which are voluntary staff. Relate offers tr[illegible]ses.

SONG 4 MUTYA

Groove Armada

WITH a title like that and lyrics like what it's got, the chances of this song being recorded by any old fool with a record contract are fairly slim, or as I prefer to say, completely non-existant.

Obviously, you know what's what in the world of popular music and such, but here's the background – Groove Armada did this song for Mutya Buena (one of an increasing number of ex-Sugababes) and asked her to sing it, and she duly obliged, hence the title. They wrote 'for' as '4' because apparently that's how the kids on the street txt it these days or something.

I don't really understand it all myself, but as I'm a thirty-something music reviewer that's only to be expected.

Song's quite good though, it's very summery, not to mention light and frothy without being too naff, the Milky Way of pop singles if you like. That probably makes Cascada the Kinder Hippos of pop music, which sounds about right to me. There was something about it that I couldn't quite put my finger on for a while too and then I realised what it was.

It sounds like a very distant cousin to Prince's U Got The Look (and how's about that for coincidence, someone else who can't be bothered with writing the title properly), and I mean that in a good way.

SUSPICIOUS MINDS AND 17 OTHER SINGLES BESIDES, YEP, RCA HAVE DONE IT AGAIN

Elvis Presley

NOW then, what's the best way to mark the 30th anniversary of the day Elvis left the building?

Well, if you're RCA Records, apparently the best way to show your respect is to shove out yet another set of his singles.

Trouble is, when it comes to all the big guns, they've rather shot their bolt - any Elvis fan or eBayer worth their salt already has the first box set containing the 18 Number One singles.

So what do you do? Simple. You choose 18 singles that didn't get to Number One and tell the fans this is their chance to right what once went wrong, whipping all the Elvis fans up into a 'Must Buy These On Day One' frenzy as you go.

Of course, after last time, making the second lot all limited editions again is an absolute must, which pretty much guarantees high chart placings for all these.

Sorry, am I sounding cynical here? Well, maybe I am, but Elvis Presley's fans are a loyal and dedicated bunch but I can't help feeling that RCA are exploiting them something rotten here.

The first collection was extremely well-done and the second will be produced to the same high standard, but I can't help feeling that perhaps once was enough.

Let's face it, £4 a single for 18 weeks and with no guarantees you'll get a complete set either, given the fact that they've already been through the mill once already this is asking for trouble.

If you are an Elvis fan, and you intend to get the complete second set, I wish you the very best of luck.

If you're from RCA, please try and think of something different (and cheaper) next time there's an anniversary of something Elvis did.

I can see it now – a special DVD box set released to commemorate forty years since Elvis last played Ker-Plunk.

Well, we've had:

50 years of rock'n'roll

70 years since he was born

30 years since he died.

There can't be that many more landmarks worth celebrating can there?

FENNYFROLICS

A ROAD in Fenny Stratford will be transformed into a picnic area and football pitch as the area hosts it's first festival.

Fenny Poppers Festival is the brainchild of local businessmen Jon Gregory and Damon Le Geyt, who wanted to establish a summer party for one of the oldest parts of Milton Keynes.

The organisers have decided to cover the historical Aylesbury Street with grass provided by sponsors Bletchley Turf, after planning permission was granted to close the road.

Jon, who runs a recruitment consultancy in Fenny Stratford, said: "This really is history in the making.

"I can not recall Aylesbury Street ever having been closed off and with grass being laid for a picnic-in-the-park style event, this is something never done before."

The event, on Sunday, August 19, has attracted involvement from every local business on the street.

From the church at one end down to the Bull and Butcher pub at the other, and will incorporate food stalls from local restaurants.

The event takes its name from the ceremonial cannons, the Fenny Poppers, fired annually on November 11 for St Martins Day.

Damon said: "These guys were our inspiration.

"We in Fenny Stratford are very proud of our history and the Poppers are synonymous to this part of Milton Keynes.

"Everyone is involved, which is why the event is special, from the vicar to the chiropractor at one end, down to Post Office and Pollards at the other.

"This is what makes Fenny special."

There is also a stage planned for live music and dance and a small fun fair provided by Keith Emmet – the events organiser who runs the annual firework bonanza in the city centre.

Anyone wishing to get involved can contact Damon on 07963 971771 or email damonlg@hotmail.co.uk.

GARDENLIFE

A slight break in the clouds heralds barbecue season

WHAT great timing, the schools have broken up for the summer holidays and for once it has stopped raining.

At last we have a chance to get out in the garden.

Whether cooking for family or friends a barbeque unleashes a wonderful communal spirit.

Good news for ladies, the men seem to like to do this, so sit back and relax.

If you don't already have a barbeque there are several options to choose from.

Classic charcoal creates a distinctive flavour but can take a while to heat up and be a bit messy. (Cheap disposable charcoal BBQs are available from £2.99.)

A gas BBQ is easy to light and clean to use but some feel they lack that special taste, and nowadays there is even a combination, using gas ignition on a charcoal barbeque.

Don't forget when people are outside they seem to be able to eat twice as much as usual.

Whatever version you choose ensure you have a safe fun time by following our tips.

FAVOURITE FOOD
Apart from burgers and sausages try:
- Jacket potatoes cooked in foil
- Fish fillets like salmon or tuna
- Steaks and chops
- You can use rosemary twigs as kebab sticks, or just on the coals

A sweet tooth?
- Place pineapple or banana in foil with brown sugar and bake, serve with ice cream

BARBECUE TIPS
- Make sure you set up your barbie on a flat surface
- Keep a bucket of water close to hand
- Make sure you have enough charcoal or briquettes
- Use citronella tea lights, candles or lamps to keep insects away
- Don't barbie in the dark as you can't check food is cooked properly

(A good tip is to pre-cook meat first, to make sure that it's cooked right through)

JOBS FOR AUGUST
- Keep on top of weeds by regular hoeing
- Continue to aerate and feed lawns, the rain will have leached a lot of nutrients from the soil
- Keep climbers and wall shrubs tidy
- Cut back flowering perennials, you may get a second flush of flowers
- Feed and deadhead roses to encourage repeat flowering
- Put paper or tea towels under lilies and shake, pick up the bright red lily beetles that fall off
- Trim lavender to stop it getting woody
- Keep ponds tidy by clearing excess plants and weeds.

KRISPY KREME DOUGHNUTS
thecentre:mk
Reviewed by Alicia Babaee

DOUGHNUTS... usually I can take them or leave them.

With Krispy Kremes however it's a different story.

One of take, take, take.

But how do you eat yours? Without a doubt, the best way to enjoy a Krispy Kreme is to pick a warm Original Glaze fresh off the conveyor belt, and wash it down with a cup of coffee.

We've had a store in Milton Keynes for a year now and if you haven't done this yet, you need to make it your mission.

Yes, you might be tempted by the array of red and yellow and pink and green (orange and purple and blue) doughnuts in the display cabinet, begging to be eaten, but you should never ignore the Original Glaze in favour of its colourful friends.

The best way to enjoy a Krispy Kreme doughnut is to pick a warm Original Glaze fresh off the conveyor belt, and wash it down with a cup of coffee

That's not to say the others aren't deserving of your money, it's just that you really should try one of each.

Krispy Kreme gave us a huge selection to try.

On this ocassion, I'd say the ones that raised the most 'mmm's' and 'aah's' were the three limited edition ones.

These were lemon meringue, apple crumble and chocolate dreamcake, and they were received particularly well.

The others were all pretty fantastic too. We feel a bit guilty saying so, but they were so fantastic that our news team went through 48 in a day.

Luckily these doughnuts are available by the dozen and it's definitely the best way to buy them.

They are £6.95 for 12 Original Glaze ones or £8.45 for an assorted box.

Alternatively, you can buy them individually from 95p.

Lock's stock rises as centre gets his name

HOW do you top being honoured by the Queen?

That was the dilemma facing the staff and trustees of Milton Keynes City Discovery Centre as they juggled different ideas to honour their chairman who has been in office as long as the organisation itself and recently went to Buckingham Palace to receive a CBE.

Well, it was suggested, why not rename the organisation's building in his honour?

Therefore, from now on, the Bradwell Abbey offices of the City Discovery Centre will be known as the David Lock Building.

A specially engraved plaque with the new name was unveiled to the delight of more than a hundred guests who were present at CDC's 20th Birthday Party on Thursday, July 12.

Summarising the history of the educational charity since 1987, the director, Michael Synnott said: "As we look back over the past twenty years, the commitment and leadership of our chairman David Lock has been a constant feature.

"Although today we find ourselves in a reasonably secure position, this was not the case in the ten years that following 1987.

"Indeed, for most of that time we were teetering on closure. It was David's determination to realise the dream of community education centre based on the experiences of Milton Keynes which kept the whole thing going.

"Later, after 1997, when our survival depended on the creation of a credible business plan and an effective fundraising strategy, David's skills as a successful businessman were crucial."

Along with the mayor Mike Barry and the council chief executive John Best, past and present staff and trustees of the City Discovery Centre joined in the celebrations.

These included Stony Stratford residents Pat Mortimer and Barbara Brown who recalled working amidst the dilapidated condition of the buildings at Bradwell Abbey in the 1980s and the biting cold of the rooms in winter.

All this is a far cry from the modernised surroundings which now characterise the local heritage spot and reflects a successful outcome for a campaign led by the David Lock in the 1990s to persuade the Commission for the New Towns to invest in the site.

Michael Synnott said: "From now on, our address will contain a clue to our organisational history."

Weighing up the pros and catching the cons

Full monty: A Trading Standards Officer checks that motorists are getting the right amount of fuel they are paying for

laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

WHETHER it be checking petrol pumps or confiscating counterfeit goods, no two days are the same for Trading Standards officers (TSOs).

Milton Keynes' TSOs, based at the offices of Milton Keynes Council in Silbury Boulevard, have a wide variety of responsibilities as they strive to protect people from counterfeit and unsafe products, and from fraud and criminal practice.

The TSOs, who work in a team of 18 staff members, enforce over 60 acts and more than 100 regulations.

This includes a wide variety of consumer protection such as:

■ TESTING WEIGHTS AND MEASURES - for example testing that alcohol is served in the correct amount in bars and hotels, and that it is not watered down or replaced by cheaper products; or making sure petrol stations are giving the right volume of petrol for your money;

■ UNDER AGE SALES - the TSOs carry out test purchasing with the help of a child volunteer who will attempt to get served in a pub, hotel or other licensed premises.

■ FOOD STANDARDS - TSOs check supermarkets and other suppliers are not selling food past its sell by date, and also test whether food items contain the appropriate products.

■ TRADEMARKING - TSOs find and confiscate counterfeit items, protecting brands and customers from buying inferior goods. When Robbie Williams held a concert at Milton Keynes Bowl in September 2006 TSOs confiscated more than 1,000 counterfeit t-shirts and sweatshirts, worth thousands of pounds. The items were donated to 'His Church', a charity that distributes unwanted clothing and food to the homeless and orphans in Eastern Europe.

■ ROGUE TRADERS - If the TSOs receive a complaint about a business they will give a full inspection to check they are compliant with the appropriate regulations.

This is just a small selection of the tests and enforcement that TSOs deal with.

But their job is not just about catching people out.

Trading standards officer Carolyn Downhill explained: "Our role is also about education, and trying to be proactive - not just responding to complaints. We give advice to consumers, but also to companies in order to help them to comply. We have powers to prosecute if companies don't follow advice, but it is used as a last resort. We are there for businesses as much as customers, as often companies will have been unaware they were breaking any rules," she added.

Mrs Downhill said there is a lot of satisfaction in her job.

"It is so varied, it is the best job in the world, you never know what you are going to be doing.

"It also gives the opportunity to meet all sorts of people."

MK MOTORING

New Audi A5 takes you to the next level

THE Audi A5 is a masterpiece of design incorporating the finest engineering delivering a sports package that takes motoring to the next level.

The new models launched are the Audi A5 three litre diesel and the S5 high powered petrol.

Both derivatives are launched in manual versions with the automatic due in 2008.

If you're looking for exhilaration, it's hard to improve on the feeling you get the first time the Audi A5's engine starts.

Living up to the promise of its sporty styling, the innovative technologies and high quality materials set out to enhance the pleasure of the open road.

Resulting in an elegant coupÈ with exceptional driving dynamics, the power of which has to be felt as well as heard.

With the Audi A5, innovative technologies are used to keep passengers safe too with two-stage airbags for driver and passenger, it also features Audi Backguard and child-friendly safety systems as standard.

With the new Audi A5 luxury abounds. The craftsmanship is of the highest quality and the exclusive items of equipment included as standard all add up to produce a memorable driving experience

The cars handle superbly and are exceptionally well finished with leather as standard.

The interior is spacious, despite being a two-door coupe, and there is generous leg room for rear passengers. The rear seats also fold down to create an enormous capacity boot.

The recent Wayside Audi day was extremely well received with over 70 guests attending enjoying the 'exhibition' of the cars and test drives of both the Audi A5 and the high performance Audi S5. Also on display was the stunning new Audi R8 which added to the excitement of the day.

■ For more information on the Audi A5 and S5 models please contact Wayside Audi, Denbigh Road, Bletchley, 01908 840000 or e-mail: paul.lacy@waysidegroup.co.uk

MK DONS THE BEST PLACE FOR ALL THE DONS NEWS

West Hammered

ANOTHER Premiership opposition and another thrilling win for MK Dons, this time it was West Ham who tasted a 3-2 defeat stadium:mk.

Playing against the likes of Freddie Ljungberg, Craig Bellamy and Luis Boa Morte, the Dons sparkled with style and even surpassed their boss' expectations.

After the game assistant manager Ray Mathias said he was 'very pleased' and added: "Preparations have been superb, the lads have done better than we expected really, the performance tonight was excellent."

It took just nine minutes for the Dons to open the scoring, with an on-form Lloyd Dyer providing the perfect ball which Mark Wright then bundled across the line. The Hammers scored two goals in quick succession through Hogan Eprhahim and Matthew Upson.

But the Dons were back in the game shortly after the break when skipper Keith Andrews scored from the spot after Drewe Broughton had been fouled in the area.

With 15 minutes remaining Paul Ince decided to roll on the substitutes, including a surprise appearance from former Leeds midfielder Jody Morris, and it was a move that paid off as the fresh-legged Nick McKoy set up Leon Knight for the winning goal.

■ A LATE strike from 18-year-old Mustapha Carayol prevented an upset at The Eyrie as MK Dons drew 1-1 with local rivals Bedford Town.

Once again Paul Ince opted for a majority of reserve players and trialists, including former Dons defender Leon Crooks and Jody Morris.

After two entertaining encounters against Chelsea and West Ham, it was a crash back to reality for Dons fan who travelled to the game as they watched a largely uneventful game.

Bedford took the lead 13 minutes in to the game when Robbie Miller's inswinger from the left allowed Jon Darby to time his header to perfection and ease the ball past a hapless Ademola Bankole.

The Eagles continued to have chances through the match, but they could not capitalise on their lead and with just six minutes remaining Carayol picked the ball up and smashed his effort past the Bedford 'keeper.

Dons manager Paul Ince said: "It was the last chance for me to look at a few players and make decisions."

■ MK DONS academy suffered a 2-1 defeat in their pre-season match against Coventry City.

Mike Dove's side went 2-0 down in the first half, the first coming just four minutes in to the game.

Substitute Dan Powell pulled one back late in the second half, but they could not level the scores.

■ THE handover of Wimbledon FC's trophies and memorabilia to the London Borough of Merton takes place tomorrow.

MK Dons Supporters' Association will receive a membership certification from the Football Supporters' Association at stadium:mk before chairman Pete Winkelman signs the deed of transfer at Merton Civic Centre.

The artefacts and trophies, which include a replica FA Cup from 1988 will go on public display.

England beat World 4-2

Frank Bruno with a young mascot

SPECTATORS were treated to a festival of football during the Alan Ball Memorial Cup, and to cap it all off England beat the World 4-2.

Remarkably, the scoreline replicates that of the World Cup Final in 1966, in that game Alan Ball's performance earned him the man of the match accolade, ahead of hat-trick hero Sir Geoff Hurst.

The day proved to be a success as a big crowd gathered at stadium:mk to watch football superstars and celebrities from the big and small screen honour and celebrate the life of Ball, who died in April this year.

MK Dons manager Paul Ince led out the England side, which also featured Des Walker, Les Ferdinand and Graeme Le Saux.

Despite a strong side England were 1-0 down after six minutes when former-Italian striker Benito Carbone got the better of Dave Beasant.

Kevin Campbell fired the scores level but Lorenzo Amoruso gave the World the lead at half time.

Speaking at half time the son of Alan Ball, Jimmy, who was also in the starting eleven for England, told MK NEWS: "We'll win in the end, we've told the referee we have to otherwise they'll be a riot."

As it turned out the riot was avoid thanks to a stunning strike from Rob Lee and when Le Saux was brought down in the box in injury time, Mark Baker, a competition winner, converted the fourth and final England goal.

After the game England manager for the day, Peter Reid said: "The most pleasing thing for me is it's the same result as the World Cup Final in '66.

"Maybe he was up there looking down and that would have pleased him."

Le Saux, one of the star performers in the game, was happy to be on the winning side, he said: "It's good to play when it's for such a good cause, there's no pressure and you get to link up with old friends.

"The stadium is stunning, it suggests that the club are really going places. It think they'll be well supported and they have a great foundation for a successful side."

PREVIEWS

WATFORD

Wednesday, August 1
stadium:mk
Kick-off 7.45pm

THE Championship side may have been relegated from the Premiership last season, but they still post plenty of threat to Paul Ince's unbeaten record in the pre-season.

Dons Chairman Pete Winkelman has made no secret of his admiration for Hornets boss Aidy Boothroyd's style of managing.

Last season as Watford were fighting a losing battle against relegation, instead of a post-mortem in his post-match-interviews Boothroyd remained ever the optimist and is fully expected to lead the charge for promotion back in to the top tier.

But the Dons will be no push overs, having gained confidence from wins over a Chelsea XI and an impressive victory over a star studded West Ham side.

KETTERING

Saturday, August 4
stadium:mk
Kick-off 3pm

IN the pre-season fixtures so far, the away games to non-league opposition have been treated as a chance for Ince and his team to run their eyes over possible new signings.

But with just a week to go before the season starts, the side likely to start against Bury on Saturday, August 11 is expected to get a run out at Kettering.

The Poppies will also be fielding their strongest side with a look towards their season, and there is also local pride at state.

BASKETBALL

Lions join college in academy launch

MK Lions have announced the launch of the Milton Keynes Basketball Academy in partnership with Milton Keynes College.

Foresight: Lions boss Vince Macaulay

Lions' chief executive, Vince Macaulay, announced: "This has been something that has been years in the planning and has been on the agenda ever since Premier League basketball arrived in MK, thanks to the foresight of MK College Principal, Rob Badcock, and Director Of Curriculum, Lindsey Styles, we have achieved a huge step in the progress of basketball in the city."

Milton Keynes College have recently opened the Courtside facility where the Lions pro team practices and this will be a key delivery venue for students at the Academy.

The basketball academy will mean that students of both sexes, under the age of 19, from MK and elsewhere will be able to continue their curriculum studies while taking basketball seriously.

Rob Badcock said: "The growth of the Lions' junior system has been screaming out for this development, it was the natural step and we are delighted to marry our learning skills and facilities to that of the basketball club.

"Members selected for the Academy will have up to nine hours of basketball instruction as part of the curriculum which will fast track their development of the game."

Macaulay added: "Whilst this programme is about developing as basketball players, the youngster's studies will be crucial, no study, no play!"

The ethos of the MK Basketball Academy will be to help pupils attain their goals of "elite" basketball while catering for their individual needs as student athletes.

The partnership with the Lions and it's successful programs at age group level, including current National Champions at Under 13's, will mean students will be able to test their skills against the best in the country whilst benefiting from the most experienced squad in British basketball.

The Lions will be announcing season ticket information in the next fortnight with special offers for groups and young people.

A Caribbean "Summer at the Stadium" will also be taking place where fans and sponsors can have a basketball day and a tour of the new stadium:mk complex where the Lions will play when the building work is finished, anticipated to be early in 2008.

ATHLETICS

Marlon Devonish (R) beats Craig Pickering (L) and Mark Lewis-Francis to win the Mens 100 metres final during the Norwich Union World Trials and UK Championships at Manchester Regional Arena on July 28

Pickering picked

TWO Milton Keynes athletes have been named in the provisional squad for the World Championships later this year.

Sprinter Craig Pickering and long-jumper Greg Rutherford, both 20-years-old, have been named in the 49 strong squad which has been described as the "first wave" of selections.

The final full list will be announced on Tuesday, August 7.

Despite missing the past year through injury, Rutherford, a European silver medallist, has been named with Chris Tomlinson to represent Great Britain in the long jump event.

But it is Pickering whose name has been touted for a place in the squad for the past few months, after impressive performances in both the indoor and outdoor season have seen him rise through the ranks as one of Britain's top sprint stars.

Pickering missed out on the 100metres title at the UK Championships and World Trials at the weekend, by just one hundredth of a second.

He ran in 10.32sec, but was just piped at the post by 31-year-old Marlon Devonish, who retained his crown as number one 100m runner.

Devonish and Pickering are the two male athletes picked in the 100m for the World Championships in Japan later this month.

The impressive Pickering has also been named in the 4x100m relay, alongside Devonish, Tyrone Edgar, Mark Lewis-Francis.

UK Athletics performance director Dave Collins said: "I'm satisfied the selection panel has picked a team capable of supporting our ambitious targets for Osaka."

"The team is full of talent and we will be looking for every member of the squad to step up and perform to the high level required at a World Championships."

■ Kadi-Ann Thomas also represented MK at the World Trial, she progressed through to the 100m final, after coming second and third in her heats.

But Thomas narrowly missed out on a medal, finishing fourth in the final after running 11.84sec, she also finished fourth in the 200m, running 24.14sec.

ICE HOCKEY

Lightning sign minder 'Psycho'

MK LIGHTNING have announced the signing of British defenceman Dan Croft.

Croft becomes the 14th recruit to the Lightning squad, and it is only his second ever club, having spent his whole career at Telford Tigers.

Fans will be delighted to see Nick Poole's latest addition to the squad, with the former Tigers' captain one of the best defenders in the league.

Poole said: "This has been a big move for Dan and I am very pleased we have been able to get him to come to MK.

"He has probably been one of the more unsung British defenders in our league and he is a player that I know we have always hated playing against."

Lightning who are still searching for another net minder, will have their back line strengthened by the physical presence of Croft, who also has the nickname 'Psycho'.

Poole added: "He is an aggressive and physical player that gives his all every game and I know he is going to fit in very well with our group of players.

"He is going to be a key player for us next season and is exactly the player we needed on our roster.

"With some of the smaller rinks in our league it is important that we have the right balance of both skill and grit.

"Dan brings both to our side and I know he will become a fan favourite quickly for the way he plays the game."

Brickhill back on top after Bray slip

BY SIMONE CORGAN

MORRANTS FOUR COUNTIES LEAGUE

DIVISION ONE

THE battle at the top continued this week, with Great Brickhill moving back in to the lead after Eaton Bray slipped up against Cubington.

After opening a lead at the top last week, Bray were dealt a shock 5 wicket defeat at the hands of sixth place Cubington.

At the end of their innings John Salmon was the lead batsman with 40 runs on the board, but it was Pip Webb's bowling that restricted their progress, claiming 3-26, as Bray finished at 170-6.

But Sam Dobin's knock of 71 helped Cublington to 25 points for the win, while Bray took 5.

ANOTHER stunning around performance from Shannon Tubb set Great Brickhill up for a convincing 175 run victory against North Crawley.

Tubb smashed 115 runs on to the scoreboard, with Ash Holloway adding 86 as Brickhill set 295 as the target.

Crawley faulted in their reply, with Tubb taking 4-17, the side crumbled all out for 120 runs to give Brickhill the win and a top of the table spot.

NEW Bradwell claimed 25 points with a win against MK City to remain in fourth place.

Mo Shahid and Russ Heady posted 68 runs between them, but the runs dried up down the order as City finished at 187-9.

Bradwell stumbled in their reply as they also lost early wickets, with Jimmy Mistry claiming 4-43, but a determined 66 from Alan Quelch guided the side to the win, with two wickets to spare.

NEWPORT Pagnell are drifting ever closer to the foot of the table after they lost to second from bottom Milton Keynes.

Despite John Braddy's best efforts with the ball, taking 4-19, MK fought hard to reach 151 all out.

Newport would have felt optimistic going in to bat, but they fell short of the set target, as MK dismissed them for just 111 runs.

DIVISION TWO

TRING Park remain at the top after their three wicket win over fourth from bottom Aston Clinton, while Aspley Guise's draw with Soulbury keeps them 20 points behind Tring in second place.

Despite Soulbury not wining a game this season, it is Turvey who are propping up the bottom of the table as they lost to Old Bradwell by six wickets.

STEWKLEY collected 25 points for their two wicket win against Eddlesborough, and Studham and Olney Town share the points from their draw.

DIVISION THREE

THERE was only one win in the division as the other two games were drawn.

CADDINGTON earned a much needed 30 points from their 85 run win against Steeple Claydon, while Biddenham and Milton Bryan shared their points.

DRAYTON Parslow also drew with Eaton Bray and The Open University tied their game against New Bradwell.

DIVISION FOUR

NORTH Crawley lost to Great Brickhill by four wickets, but are still top of the league, while Stoke Hammond pushed up to first after beating Old Bradwell by 169 runs.

WILLEN dropped down to third place as they lost at the hands of Totternhoe and second from bottom placed Cranfield University picked up 16 points from their draw with MK.

After beating Harlington by six wickets, Whitchurch are now sitting in second place.

DIVISION FIVE

MK CITY beat Stewkley by 135 runs but, with Printers keeping up the pressure after their 10 wicket win against Olney Town, City are only 5 points clear.

CUBINGTON lost by four wickets to Milton Bryan, Tring Park narrowly beat Wing by seven runs and Winslow Town lost out to Little Horwood by 15 runs.

DIVISION SIX

CUBINGTON are still searching for their first win after they lost by 158 runs to Newport Pagnell.

TURVEY stay top after their 53 run victory against Caddington, while Eggington lost to MK Park by four wickets

THIRD placed Ivinghoe and Pitstone collected 30 points from their 81 run victory against Aston Clinton.

CHERWELL LEAGUE

ANOTHER torrid time with the bat saw MK Park miss out on a vital win against Banbury XX.

With Banbury batting first, it was a second wicket stand of 67 runs between Mark Haupt and John Wright that set up the foundations of their innings and they eventual set 171 for Park to chase.

But in reply Park failed to deal with Banbury bowler Andrew Grubich, who claimed 6-24, and they fell 49 runs short as they were dismissed for 122.

Park are second from bottom, but 18 points clear of Dinton.

NORTHANTS LEAGUE

STONY Stratford are sliding down the league after another defeat, this time at the hands of Peterborough United.

Putting their hosts in to bat, Stony took three quick wickets to leave Peterborough reeling at 13-3, but a skilful hundred from Tariq Aziz and late lower order hitting from Mike Outar saw the home side reach 223-8 from their 55 overs.

Stony lost Graeme Carter first ball and were dismissed for a lowly 107, with Ajaz Akhtar claiming 5-40.

They will be hoping their batting performance improves as they play host to Northampton Saints this weekend.

Gunner hopes for break

ARSENAL youngster Mark Randall is hoping to break into the first team this season.

The 17-year-old from Bletchley took part in the Gunners' Austrian training camp and he is keen to gain more experience with the side.

He said: "Hopefully I will get a run out in the Premiership this season but maybe I will go out on loan I don't know yet.

"But as a youngster I feel if you are good enough then you will get your chance to play here. The boss has shown that in the past."

Randall took part in two of Arsenal's games and was pleased with his performances, he said: "The first team come to Austria every season and a lot of young players want to be part of the tour."

"I thought I did pretty well in both games."

Chase a banana

MK athletes are being offered the chance to run in the first Bananaman Chase 10k outside of London, in aid of UK's leading blood cancer charity Leukaemia Research.

On Sunday, October 7, fund-raisers will be aiming to beat as many 'top bananas' as they can as they run around Willen Lake.

Ten people with personal experiences of leukaemia or other blood cancers have been chosen to dress up as 'bananas' and act as pace-setters in the fun run.

The 'bananas' start ahead of the runners and each run at different paces, so whether you are a fast runner or want to walk you will have the chance to beat a 'banana'.

Money raised from the event will go towards Leukaemia Research's challenging goal of committing over £100million to new leading laboratory research and clinical trials with patients over the next five years.

All entrants will receive plenty of support with their fundraising and a race-day T-shirt. Finishers will get the much sought-after 'Bananaman medal' as well as lots of other goodies for taking part. Anyone over 15 is welcome to join the race to beat the 'top bananas' and help raise vital cash to fight blood cancers.

Cameron signs one year deal

MK DONS will today confirm the signing of Colin Cameron.

The Scottish international joins the side on a one year deal after his contract with Coventry City expired.

He has already won over fans, after an impressive performance in midfield in their win against West Ham United.

Paul Ince, who played with Cameron at Wolves, has added the 34-year-old to his squad to add experience and guidance to the side for the new season.

Former Chelsea midfielder Jody Morris is also expected to sign before the start of the season, alongside David Navarro.

Speaking after the Bedford Town game, Ince told MK NEWS: "Jody knows his way around the pitch and he can play, so he's another one who could challenge the likes of Keith Andrews, Colin Cameron, hopefully we can get the Navarro deal sorted and then we've got people fighting for places."

Dons on the run as Campbell sprints in

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

SPRINT sensation Darren Campbell has been drafted in to help MK Dons with their running techniques.

The Olympic gold medallist spent yesterday morning putting the Dons squad through their paces and he will now regularly join up with the team to work on their movement on the pitch.

Fitness coach Duncan Russell told MK NEWS Campbell had a similar role at Macclesfield Town, and they were keen to get him back on board.

He said: "We've brought Darren in to help with the players' movement.

"He's a very good friend of the gaffer, and he does a lot of sprint work with people in football, he's actually working with a Chelsea player too."

The main purpose of Campbell's sessions are to teach the players how to run correctly, which Russell admitted was more difficult than people realise.

"A lot of players have never been taught how to run correctly!

"Sprinting is a linear movement, so it's all running in straight lines and what we are working on really is the technique of running.

"Players don't tend to co-ordinate leg movement with arm movement and that's what Darren has been working on.

"We did little drills, if you do the drills often enough they become natural to you. So when you need explosive power and you need to get away from a defender or a defender wants to get away from an attacker, they can do so, explosively.

Russell added: "Practice doesn't make perfect, it makes permanence."

While the coaching staff are not looking for the players to turn in to Olympic athletes, they are hoping it will add to their fitness for the start of the season next week.

One player who will be doubtful for the opening game at home to Bury will be Jude Stirling.

The versatile defender was victim of a nasty clash of heads with Drissa Diallo in training on Friday, and he was taken straight to hospital with concussion.

Yesterday Stirling was still feeling the after effects of the incident, he said: "I'm feeling sick, my words are sometimes slurred and I forget what I'm going to say.

"You don't realise the effect, until you have a head injury, a proper one."

The 25-year-old was quick to thank Russell, manager Paul Ince and Ademola Bankole for keeping him calm after the clash.

Stirling, still suffering from delayed concussion, is set to rejoin the squad in training within the next week.
